

THE BUSHEY ACADEMY

Proud to belong

Vice-Principal: Achievement and Standards

Salary Details: Leadership Scale L19-L23
Contract Type: Full time
Contract term: Permanent

Required for September 2012

The Bushey Academy requires a dynamic and pro-active senior leader, capable of combining an outcomes led approach with an ability to build excellent relationships with students and staff, to join the strong Senior Leadership Team as one of two Vice-Principals.

The successful candidate will work closely with the Principal in driving the academy to outstanding and will have high expectations for their own and others' performance. Enthusiasm, drive, emotional intelligence and a positive attitude are essential characteristics for the holder of this post, which will regularly involve representing the Principal and the academy.

This post would suit colleagues from either academic or pastoral career paths, with the keys to success being the facility to impact positively on achievement and standards, a high level of professionalism and a commitment to putting the needs of students first.

The academy has a strong vision and ethos which has led to rapidly improving examination results and significantly increased applications from parents for places. It has a positive reputation in the local area, benefits from strong parental support and moves into its £30 million new building in Autumn 2012. Most importantly, students and staff at the academy share a commitment to its success and are "Proud to Belong".
